

Mackay ArtFest

Sunday, June 24, 2018

11:00 AM to 3:30 PM

Mackay United Church
Memorial Hall, 39 Dufferin Rd

Bake Sale, Silent Auction and
The Art of Area Artists...

Deborah Lyall - Fibre Artist

Deborah Lyall has a passion for interesting texture, shape and colour. She founded an original Fiber Art Studio where she enjoys hand-crafting original artworks in her signature vintage style.

John Benn - Plein Air Painter

John Benn is the etching/linocut printmaker of the 1970s, 80s, 90s. Since 2008, he has been painting in oils -- en plein air — through every season and is currently painting in the woodlands of Ottawa South & East.

Barbara Carlson - Digital Artist

Barbara Carlson, the fabric artist of the 70s and 80s, and monoprinter of the 90s, is now making digital art using scanned found objects for digitally collaged graphics printed with archival inks on watercolour paper. Shrink-wrapped & Ready to hang.

Jane Cooper - Author

Local historian and writer, Jane Cooper, will showcase her latest biography, The Canadian Nightingale, the remarkable life story of a forgotten Canadian opera singer.

Rhonda MacLeod - Jeweller

Rocks by Rhonda Lynn Jewellery Design: Handmade Sterling Silver and Gold Jewellery set with Gemstones, Semi Precious Stones, Pearls and Swarovski Crystals.

Susan Ashbrook - Artistic Explorer and Teacher

Susan works predominately in acrylics and mixed media and is constantly exploring new ideas, techniques and ways of being creative. She is especially fond of texture and bling!

Nada Melly - Artist

Nada Melly is a Syrian-born artist now residing in Ottawa, Canada. She arrived with her family in October, 2016. Art has always been an outlet to express her emotions, experiences and energy. She creates unique works using acrylic, oil, ink, pastel & pencil.

Information:
(613) 749-8727